

Studying in Canada

INFORMATION FOR U.S. STUDENTS

All foreign students need a student authorization to study in Canada. The Canadian government has a special arrangement with the United States. If you are a U.S. citizen you can obtain a student authorization from Canada Immigration on the day you cross the border to come to college.

When you arrive at the Canadian border you will need the following:

- Personal identification (passport required)
- Letter of Acceptance from Pacific Life Bible College
- Citizen and Immigration Student Information Form (from PLBC)
- Proof of financial support may be required.
 - A letter from parents guaranteeing support and/or
 - A bank statement from you or your parent's account showing you/they have sufficient funds to support yourself while studying in Canada.
- $125.00 Canadian funds (Canadian Student Study Permit fee)

For more information you can contact Canadian Citizenship and Immigration on the web at <http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/study/index.asp> (scroll down to read the information).
